Arlington High School
Arlington, Massachusetts

Mr. Dlott,

"My First Class" how often we have heard you say those words to us. As freshmen and principal we entered A.H.S. together. We couldn't have asked for someone who cared more about his students than you have. Together we have done many things for Arlington High School. Thank you for your encouragement and support over the last four years.

The Class of 1988

It is with great pride that Arlington High School wishes farewell to you, the Class of 1988. You are a special class to me personally as you are the first group that I have had the privilege of knowing for four years. During these years I have witnessed outstanding academic growth. In your junior and senior years, you developed the self-confidence necessary for academic success. You can now leave Arlington High School well prepared to take your next academic or career step. In addition, your class has always been highly spirited and heavily involved in extra-curricular activities. The literary magazine, Fourth Estate, Gilbert and Sullivan Club, Computer Club, sports teams and other school activities benefited from your participation. In addition, your social activities such as proms and semis set records for attendance and enthusiasm.

However, even your long list of accomplishments do not tell the full story of the Class of 1988. You are a group of young people who have been a pleasure to work with. Your enthusiasm and dedication have made Arlington High School a better place. I have truly enjoyed working with you as your principal.

I wish you all the best of luck in pursuing your individual goals. You are the future leaders of the Town of Arlington.

Stephen P. Dlott
Principal

In Memory of . . .

Robert Lavery

Teacher and coach are two words often used in the world of schools. For Robert Lavery they were more than just words, they represented a life-time commitment in caring for and teaching the youth of Arlington.

A life-long citizen of the town, Bob both received and gave much to Arlington, especially in his heroic efforts to preserve Spy Pond.

For over twenty years, Bob taught social studies and coached baseball at his alma mater, Arlington High. Bob's classes were noted for his blending of sports with history. In his teaching Bob carried into his classroom the skills of a good coach who knew when to praise, when to chastise, when to use humor, and when to show compassion. In his coaching, Bob carried onto the playing fields the skills of a good teacher who knew how to teach players the skills of the game, and the love of the game.

Bob Lavery's first concern was always the students. Over the years at Arlington High, Bob helped many students to get into college or obtain a scholarship. In remembering Bob Lavery one thinks of a strong and courageous man who loved teaching and coaching at Arlington High.

Maxine Hardy was a splendid woman, of great intellect and big heart. This loved and loving wife and mother was also our friend and colleague through eighteen years of work at the high school. Maxine combined with her charm an unlimited energy and the highest integrity. Her genial personality and the generous instincts of this fine woman will be missed not only by the English department but by the entire high school.

Media Club

Students who volunteer in the Media Center are members of the Media Club. They check out books, set up displays, edit film, and tape videos. There are 34 members who help with everyday work and plan activities. Events of the year included a bake sale, Oktoberfest, a trip to Omni Theater and a visit to New York City. All have contributed to a successful 1987/88 year.

The Photography Club? Okay, here are some of the things we DON'T do in the Photo Club: develop film and make prints in the conveniently located darkroom facility; go on field trips to museums and radical art galleries; have meetings to experiment with pushing film, candids, portraits, sports, photography, etc.; and loads more. Yeah, yeah, that's the ticket ... we don't do ANY of that stuff.

With a membership of over 100 students, Arlington High School's SADD Club continues to be one of the largest and most active in the State. In celebration of SADD's fourth anniversary this year, students raised $700.00 to defray the cost of two performances by the "Improbable Players" for the entire student body.

Results of a substance use survey distributed bi-yearly to all students since 1982 indicate that there has been a 10% decrease in drinking and driving, and a 25% decrease in the number of students who have been willing to ride in a car with a driver who has been drinking. These encouraging changes are attributed to the success of the SADD program at AHS.

Since its inception five years ago, co-advisors of the SADD club have been Vincent D'Antona, Director of the Guidance Department, and Elizabeth Oppedisano, Executive Director of the Arlington Council on Alcohol and Drug Education.

Class officers for the 1987-1988 school year are: President, Diane Deveaux; Vice President, Marie Arena; Secretary, Kim Newell; and Treasurer, Merideth Jackson

John Donne, in "Meditation 17," wrote: "No man is an island entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main." Perhaps our greatest achievements lay in the incorporation of this ideal. Only by looking beyond our differences will we see the similarities.

DECA

D.E.C.A. is an international student organization that has been at AHS for more than twenty years. This year, there were three chapters and students participated in District, State, and Regional conferences on development and competency testing. The students merchandised and managed the school store and raised the lion's share of participation expenses.

I'M PROUD OF YOU

In many ways I'm proud of you —
You've come a long, long way
The growth in your abilities
Has struck me day by day.

Each person has a goal to reach,
A place they'd like to be,
A standard they aspire for,
Results they'd like to see.

Some contests are for glory,
Putting trophies on the shelf.

Others are the ones we wage
For bettering the self.

It's not the stakes that count, but rather
How we sense our movement;
And you are on a steady course
Of rapid self-improvement.

The progress you are showing
Makes me want to say aloud;
I'm happy where you're going,
And you make me very proud.

Bruce B. Wilmer

CONGRATULATIONS Rob —

You've come a long, long way
You've made us very proud of you
In so many, many ways.

To take it day by day,
But most of all remember
That we're with you all the way.

WE LOVE YOU VERY MUCH!

It's not what a man possesses
That tells in the final test;
It's not what a man professes
That ranks him among the best;
Nor wealth, nor race, nor learning
Is ever the thing that amounts;
The God of us all is discerning
It's only the heart that counts.

Though he have the lore of the sages,
Though we know the visions of
seers,
Though he makes us laugh at
his pages,
Or draw from our eyes swift

You are "What Counts" to us.

tears,
Man's knowledge will not avail
him,
It's never the thing that amounts,
And wit at the end will fail him —
It's only the heart that counts.

The Saviour himself hath said it,
Forever and ever, amen,
This virtue is chief to our credit:
Love of God and our fellow-men.
Or raiment fine, or tatters,
Neither it is that amounts,
Charity's all that matters —
It's only the heart that counts.
